

Season 2 Episode 10

The Importance of Existence

Mason is out in the park and he pulls out a remote and he presses a button on it. The remote morphs into a mega cannon. Mason said, "I have a mega cannon. This could blow through anything you build." Keith takes out a remote and he presses a button on it. His remote forms into a scepter. Keith swings it around. Keith said, "What good is having a mega gun when I can just deflect it with magic?" Keith uses the scepter to fire a beam of magic and it hits the ground next to Mason. Mason goes flying to the other end of the park. Mason lands next to a hot dog vendor and Jason is being served a hot dog. Jason looks down at Mason. Jason said, "Explosive personality getting in the way again?" Mason said, "I didn't think Keith would be able to utilize magic so well." Jason and Mason run back to Keith. Mason takes out a smaller mega cannon and he shoots it at the tip of Keith's scepter and it smashes. Keith said, "I had it with you two. The world will see that I am truly the best." Keith takes out a large box machine and he takes a suction cannon off it (it resembles a vacuum cleaner) and he aims it at Jason and Mason. Jason said, "A vacuum cleaner? I am really scared." Keith said, "Silence you fool! This thing can erase anything from any existence ever." Jason said, "Like your love life since you don't seem to have a girlfriend?" Keith said, "Enough! I will show you. I will bring you into a world in which you never existed." Keith's head turns red and steam flies off it. Keith activates his machine and it begins to suck a blue and green vortex of air. He aims the air and it hits Jason and Mason. They fade away into particles and the particles fly into Keith's machine. Keith places the suction device back on the machine. Keith said, "I did it. I erased Jason and Mason from existence. It will be as if they have never existed. I am now the smartest person in the world. The world will look up to me and fear the name, Keith."

Keith turns around and he sees the sky is red and black and buildings look old and destroyed and the park looks like something from a horror film. Keith said, "What happened to the park? I don't care." Keith rolls his machine down the street. Keith sees the street looks all trashed. Keith said, "What happened to the city?" Keith sees a fat man jump in a mail box and he gets stuck in it. Keith walks by the fat man and the fat man said, "You have to go without me. They are coming for us. We are next." Keith ignores the man and he walks past him. Keith walks into downtown and he sees UFOs with legs and arms shooting lasers at the ground and destroying buildings and capturing people. A crowd of people run by Keith and Keith blends in with the crowd. The crowd heads for a dead end street and a UFO lands in front of them. The door on it opens and Zorkon aliens leave the ship. A Zorkon General takes the stand. He said, "Fair citizens of the world. You will all surrender to planet Zorkon and become our slaves. Or else you will die a horrid death that will make you wish you never existed." A human mob leader jumps to the front of the crowd and he raises a fist to the Zorkon people. The man said, "Over our dead bodies!" The General said, "If that is so." The General takes out a gun and he shoots the man and he fades into dust. People run around in a panic and the Zorkon people shoot more people and make them turn to dust. Keith said, "All this madness? Without Jason and Mason?" Keith reaches in his knitted sweater and he pulls out a ray gun and he fires ray beams at the Zorkon people. The Zorkon people are knocked on the ground. The General spots Keith. He walks to Keith and he places his hand on Keith's head and he picks up Keith. The General said, "You are Gruzzard's boy aren't you?" Keith said, "What's it too you?" The General said, "There is a large bounty on anyone that comes from the Gruzzard family since it is the royal family of earth. Book him and seize that box of his. He deserves to see his father again." Keith is thrown into the UFO with his machine.

The UFO docks with a Zorkon space station in orbit. A sliding door opens and Keith walks in it and he sees his father (Dr. Gruzzard) in there. Keith said, "Father?" Dr. Gruzzard said, "Son." Dr. Gruzzard hugs Keith. Dr. Gruzzard said, "I was dead worried about you. I thought you were killed in those insurrections the people have planed against the Zorkons. I thought insurrections could only happen towards us." Keith said, "What is going on anyways?" Dr. Gruzzard said, "Sit on my lap. It will be a long story..."

Dr. Gruzzard said, (with black and white flashback) "In 1992, we ruled the world. I introduced a line of household products that everyone loved and enjoyed. They did not know that I planted secret chips in them to make them eventually turn against their masters. They did turn against their masters and they did my bidding. I eventually ruled all the countries of the world with the gadgets. We could have anything we wanted. A few years later, an alien race called the Zorkon came to us. They said their world was at war with another planet and they want to take over our world to use as a stronghold for theirs. I refused and they started a war with us. I used my robotic soldiers against their Zorkon soldiers. For years we were fighting each other but we were weakening. Eventually, my whole army operation was shut down and the Zorkon dominated most of the world. They rule all of it now. We need to fight them. We cannot let it end like this." Keith gets a flashback of the world being normal before Jason and Mason disappeared. Keith also gets a flashback of Jason and Mason defeating Dr. Gruzzard and defeating the Zorkon people on a few occasions. Keith thinks about his machine being reversed. Keith said, "I think I know how to end all this. I have a plan." Dr. Gruzzard said, "Any plan is better than no plan."

A Zorkon soldier enters the room Dr. Gruzzard is staying in. Dr. Gruzzard said, "I need a new filter for the food synthesizer. I keep getting ants in my food." The Zorkon soldier said, "That's how it is supposed to be." Keith sneaks up behind him with a cooking pot and he bashes the soldier on the head. Dr. Gruzzard grabs his ray gun and he fires it at the soldier and he disappears into dust. Keith sees another ray gun on the soldier. Keith grabs it. Keith said, "Phase one completed." Dr. Gruzzard and Keith run out of the detention center and they head out into a hallway. They open a door and they see more Zorkon soldiers. Dr. Gruzzard and Keith open fire at them and they destroy all the soldiers. They run into the next room and they see a map. Keith looks at the map. Keith said, "We need to find a way to get into the room where they hold gadgets they commandeer from people." Keith tries to make sense of the map. A Zorkon janitor walks by. Keith holds the ray gun to the janitor's head. Keith said, "You are coming with us. You have to show us something."

Dr. Gruzzard and Keith follow the janitor with their guns out. The janitor opens up a door and it reveals a room with gadgets littered everywhere and in the center of all of it, is Keith's machine. Keith said, "Bingo!" Keith walks for the machine and the room fades away and turns into a different room. It turns into a throne room where the Zorkon King sits in his seat in front of Dr. Gruzzard and Keith. The Zorkon King said, "The Gruzzard and the Junior are here. You fell right into my trap. I know the two of you are the greatest threat to my operation. I thought I would get all the information from you now before I destroy you two." Dr. Gruzzard said, "You must reconsider what you are doing. You are putting a peaceful world in danger." The King said, "You call your world, Peaceful? You call a world where people steal cars and rob banks, peaceful? You really are not worthy of existence." Keith said, "You have something that belongs to me. That machine of mine." The King said, "Oh yes, your machine. I've been wondering what it does." Keith said, "It has a self defense mechanism. If anyone other than me uses it, it will send a large amount of quantum plasma power against you. It will destroy this station as well as half of your beloved world. If you don't want that to happen, you will bring it here to me and I will show you what it does." The King takes a moment to think and he said, "Let me think about that... NO! Guards..." Guards with laser sticks arrive and they swing them around. They slash them at Keith but he jumps out of the way. Keith jumps in the air and he kicks the guard in the face. Keith jumps again to kick the guard in the face but the guard grabs onto Keith's leg and he holds Keith by it. Keith reaches in his knitted sweater and he takes out a fusion cutter and he slashes it down the guard. The guard falls apart into pieces of metal that were being held together by a pink liquid.

Keith sees Dr. Gruzzard is in danger. Keith runs for him and he takes out his fusion cutter and he jumps in the air and he cuts the robot guard in half down the middle. Dr. Gruzzard said, "Thanks son, I knew I could count on you." The King said, "This is an outrage!" Keith said, "If you just let me have my machine, you would not have to put up with any more of this." The King presses another button on side of his chair. The room flashes red. The King said, "I just initiated the self-destruct button. This place will explode in nine minutes." Keith said, "You do know you are going to destroy yourself, too right?" The King said, "What does it matter to me. I am not really here. I am actually in my sanctuary on the Zorkon home world right now. This is just a hologram." Keith shoots at the King and his ray beams just fly through the King and do nothing.

Keith said, "Now what are we going to do?" Dr. Gruzzard said, "We need to find where your machine actually is. It cannot be far from here." Keith and Dr. Gruzzard leave the room and they run back into the hallway. Most of the Zorkons are in a rush to evacuate. They run by and ignore Keith and Dr. Gruzzard. They see rows of rooms. Keith said, "We have no time to lose. Just check all the doors and we may find our prize." Dr. Gruzzard and Keith run around like crazy and they open up random doors and they come across funny rooms. Keith opens up a door and he sees the Zorkon General in a steam bath with a bunch of Zorkon women. The General spots Keith and Keith shuts the door and runs away. Dr. Gruzzard opens up a door and he looks inside and he sees a field of crops in the mid-west. A crow sits on a scarecrow. The Crow looks at Dr. Gruzzard and it squawks and yells, "Get lost dofus!" Dr. Gruzzard slams the door and runs away. Dr. Gruzzard and Keith crash into each other. Dr. Gruzzard and Keith both say, "Where could it be?" They look and they see some one pushing Keith's machine.

The Zorkon pushing it said, "I cannot lose this. This could hold the secrets of the universe." Dr. Gruzzard pushes him off and Keith goes to the machine and he enters his passcode into the computer. The screen on it shows an outline of Jason and Mason. Keith said, "Jason and Mason, they are the cause and solution to all my problems." Dr. Gruzzard said, "Who are, Jason and Mason? Why do their names rhyme?" Keith said, "No time to explain. I have to recall..." Keith takes out the vacuum and he turns it on and the blue and green vortex comes out and it sucks up a few Zorkons trying to escape. Keith said, "That's not it." Keith presses another button on it and it shoots out the Zorkons that just got sucked up. Keith scrolls through a menu on it. The screen reads, "Do you want to delete Jason and Mason?" Keith yells, "No!"

The General appears from behind Keith. He picks Keith up and he throws him out of the way. The General rubs his hands over Keith's machine. The General said, "I call dibs on this machine." Keith said, "Only I can use it." The General turns on the machine and the machine said, "Detected a non-Keith life force touching the device. Will self-destruct and take out half of the planet with it." The General said, "I will crack the code to this." Dr. Gruzzard bashes the General in the head and he said, "You never will have it." The General said, "You have been a royal pain in my side for years now." The General takes out a larger ray gun." Dr. Gruzzard jumps on the General and they fight while Keith attempts to reverse Jason and Mason out of his machine. Dr. Gruzzard and the General fight in the background while Keith tries things on his machine with funny results. A computer voice in the station said, "forty-five seconds to total destruction!" Sweat rains off Keith's face as he keeps trying things on the machine. Dr. Gruzzard is thrown to the side of the fray. The General activates his big weapon and it makes a croaking noise and smoke comes out of it. The General shakes the weapon like crazy and it still does nothing. Dr. Gruzzard said, "Having trouble with your own weapons?" The General said, "I kind of am." Dr. Gruzzard goes to the General and the General pulls out a small ray gun and he blasts Dr. Gruzzard with it. Dr. Gruzzard falls to the floor and he fades away. Keith sees what just happens and his head turns red and steam flies off it. Keith uses rage to grab the vacuum and twist and turn it and then... Jason and Mason are shot out of it.

The General looks at Jason and Mason and he scratches his head. He said, "Should I know these guys?" The world around Jason, Mason, and Keith turns into a spiral vortex of blue and green and they appear back in the park. Jason and Mason are sitting down in the grass. They look at each other. Jason said, "What just happened?" Mason said, "I feel like some big catastrophic event just occurred and we missed it." Jason said, "I know what you mean." Jason takes a bite out of his hotdog. Keith sees Jason and Mason are there and that the world is back to normal. Keith said, "Jason, Mason, is that really you?" Mason said, "Of course it is us." Jason said, "Who else would we be?" Keith skips over to them and he hugs Jason and Mason and he skips around the park. Keith said, "Thank you, oh thank you." Jason and Mason have angry looks on their faces. Jason said, "What happened, did you drink too much of that Gruzzard official drink again?" Keith said, "I realize how great it is to live in this world." Jason said, "We always knew that." Keith said, "Well, you should know it again." Keith drops Jason and Mason and they land back on the ground. Jason looks at Mason and he said, "What's his problem?" Mason shrugs his shoulders. Keith skips around the city. He sees everything is perfect and in-tact. Keith said, "I'm so glad that everything is back to normal. This is the greatest day of my life." Keith stops and the wind blows a newspaper and it gets stuck on Keith's leg. Keith picks up the newspaper and he reads the front cover. It has a picture of Mason holding a flask and in big bold letters it said, "Mason voted number one genius in the world for the last ten years and counting." Keith's head turns red and steam shoots out of it. Keith rips up the newspaper and he yells, "I will defeat you one day, Mason!"
